Lake Balaton

The scorching sun, the bustling crowds, the smell of sizzling in the air. This is Lake Balaton in summer. But what is it like in the other seasons? The capital of the northern coast of the lake is Balatonfüred, known for its thermal water.

The program

A welcome drink will be served upon arrival in the early afternoon (14:00) and after checking in.

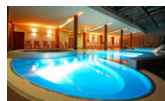

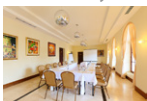

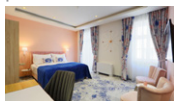

From 15:00 onwards, the team can test their orientation skills on the streets of Balatonfüred in an itinerary adventure game combined with GPS. After completing the task, a professional test will provide an additional challenge at around 17:45, followed by the results announcement and the awarding of trophies.

Afterwards, there will be a free program, wellness and other recreational activities on the hotel premises or outside (walking along the Tagore promenade), followed by a gala dinner with music and dancing and karaoke in the hotel's private room from 20:00. The next day, after breakfast, it is time to departure for home.
